The capitol police and citizens have lodged information at police headquarters that the language made use of last night at a meeting of Cohen's followers, on the east steps of the capitol, was of the most incendiary character. Some speakers advocated a raid on the U.S. there. The district commissioner to-day made a requisition for forty set of cavalry equipments, pistols, ammunition, etc., for use of the police department. The commissioners have also made a requisition upon the chief of ordnance for some canteens, carbines, alings, and a quantity of carbine cartridges for the use of the district militia, to be turned over

The Washington City Mob.

Washington, Sept. 22.—The various journals of this city comment with some severity upon the action of the authorities in allowing Cohen to parade the streets of the city with a mob. Some of the papers this morning intimate that unless the proper authorities put an end to these proceedings it will be necessary for the citizens to take the matter in their own hands. Fred Douglass, marshal of the district, who has charge of the city hall building, and who is responsible for the public property there, last night announced to Cohen's mob that they could hold meeting then in progress, but no further assemblage would be permitted in front of the building where they have been meeting nightly for the past week. and there is this that is peculiar; it is always when the fortune of the country is falling that Jesuitism rises. Far be it from me to wish to put shackles on liberty. I am an obstinate partisan of the liberty of conscience; but ministers of religion have duties to the State, and what we exact is fulfillment of these duties and to apply the laws, all the laws, and then abolish indulgences. If law is applied order will be restored in France without persecution by simply continuing traditions which prevailed."

Grateful for Russian Protection.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 23.—Gen. Todleben telegraphs the czar that he was received at Adrianople by Musulman, Greek, Bulgarian, Armenian and Jewish clergy, who requested him to express their gratitude for the protection which the Russian authorities had afforded them. They stated that such order and justice had never before prevailed, as during the occupation by Russian troops. Adrianapolis was illuminated on the arrival and departure of Gen. Todelben, and the gates of the mosque bore the czar's initials.
